

Anila Mahmood

Trainer @ Professional
Partnerz.LLC

Anila Mahmood is an exceptional Montessori teacher with an experience over a decade with strong communication skills and the dedication in helping individuals to do their best. She believes strongly in creating a stimulating learning environment in which an individual can develop their full potential. She excels at providing unique care essential for child's development

Anila always strives to put students (child or adult) first, observe and understand them closely and this guides her to teach them in a manner that makes their learning experience exciting. She loves connecting with Montessorians from around the world. In spreading Montessori through teacher training, she has become an agent of change not only in the adults she trains but also the children she teaches. Ultimately, the Montessori Method of Education helps children become in tune with who they are, therefore making them at peace with themselves.
